Sir,

Sub:-Request of the villagers of Basapura, Malakalmur Taluk regarding release of S.No.14 for gomal.

Ref:-Your memo No.AFD 42 DAR 57 dated 12-3-1957.

I enclose a copy of letter No.904 dated 13-11-1958 of the Divisional Forest Officer, Chtradurga Division with that of its enclosures received in No.M2-20-31/57 dated 20-11-1958 from the Conservator of Forests, Bellary Circle on the above subject for kind perusal. Since the village forest in question is not fit for taking over by this department as it does not appear to be fit for handing over to the Education Department also and as the villagers of Basapur want the area for Gomal, the area may be retained by the Revenue Department for the use of the villagers-if the Education Department has no objection.

If, however, the Panchyat desire to improve the forest all technical help as also seedlings and seeds may be supplied by this Department.

The application is retransmitted.

In modification of this office letter NO.A.821/58-59 dated 18-10-58 on the above subject, I write to state as follows:-

1. Government have ordered in NO.R.10-1974-75-LR-27-58-19 dated 11-5-58 that the village Forests which have lost characterstics of Forests may be handed over them to the Education Department and the Forests which have the characterstics of Forests may be handed over to Forest Department.

2. The S.No.14 of Basapura village- 338 Acres & 21Guntas is included in the list of village Forests and is under the management of the Revenue Department.

3. The villagers of Basapura village requests to retain the same as village Forest as they have no other land for Gomal and also for obtaining materials for Agricultural implements etc.,

4. The Range Forest officer, Molakalmuru has reported that there is "Gokatte" as stated in the application and the area after the grant of 32 acres to the A.K's by the Revenue Department forms a hill. There is no Forest growth in the above area and is not fit for taking over the area by the Department.

Under the above circumstances, I write to state that the land in S.NO.14 of Basapur may be retained by the Revenue Department for the use of the villagers.

The petition of the villagers, Extract from the index of lands of Basapura village S.NO.14, copy of the Government order directing to take over the village Forest to the Forest Department are submitted herewith for favour of kind perusal.

Sir,

Sub:- Disposal of land out of S.No.14 of Basapura village - Petition from the Villagers of Basapura and Devasamudra.

Ref:- Your letter No.RD.44 LBD.59 dated 17-1-59.

S.No.14 of Basapura village in Molakalmuru taluk is a gomal land (ಸುಲ್ತಾನ್) measuring 338-21 and it has been converted into a village Forest as per Govt. order No.5630-2.FJ.27-15-78 dated 5-12-16 and the management was given to village Panchayet as per Government order No.G.2039-G.M.321-35-2 dated 25-9-1936.

The land is under the Control of Revenue Department and 32 acres of land has already been assigned for cultivation.

Since the land is vested with the Revenue Department and the villagers want this to be preserved as Gomal the land may be retained at the disposal of the Revenue Deptt.
